

Glossary

Level 1

explosive exploding or able to explode easily hallucinating to see, hear, feel, or smell something that does not exist, usually because of a health condition broadcasting the activity or business of sending out programmes on television or radio

Glossary

Level 2

engineer a person whose job is to repair or control machines, engines, or electrical equipment delirious unable to think or speak clearly because of fever or mental confusion veil a piece of thin material worn by women to cover the face or head meningitis a serious infectious disease that causes the tissues around the brain and spinal cord to swell pneumonia a serious illness in which one or both lungs become red and swollen and filled with liquid to decay if a radioactive substance decays, it changes to a different form, producing radiation electromagnetic waves an electromagnetic wave is created as a result of the interaction between an electric field and a magnetic field formula a list of the substances that something is made of

Glossary

Level 3

unprecedentedly in a way that has not happened or existed before stumble to step awkwardly while walking or running and fall or begin to fall acquaintance a person that you have met but do not know well unconscious in the state of not being awake and not aware of things around you, especially as the result of a head injury inflammation of the meninges meningitis is a disease caused by an inflammation of the meninges maddened very angry or annoyed group of anarchists group consisting of people who wish to destroy the existing government and laws imminent coming or likely to happen very soon

